ORDER

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

An initial pretrial conference is currently scheduled in this case for May 5, 2021. Although the parties jointly submitted a proposed Case Management Plan and a joint letter explaining that they do not believe there is need for a conference, ECF Nos. 43 & 44, they failed to provide any of the information that the Court had ordered to be included in that letter, see ECF No. 9. Further, while the parties were ordered “to schedule a settlement conference to take place at least two weeks before the initial pretrial conference,” id. (emphasis removed), the docket does not reflect that any settlement conference has taken place or been scheduled; this conclusion is confirmed by the parties’ statement that have not had any settlement discussions as of April 28, 2021, ECF No. 43, at ¶ 3. Accordingly, no later than April 30, 2021, the parties shall file a new joint letter with all of the information required by the Court’s earlier order at ECF No. 9. In that letter, counsel should also explain whether they have complied with the Court’s prior Order regarding a settlement conference and, if not, why sanctions should not issue.

Failure to comply with this Order may result in sanctions.

SO ORDERED.
